

The Textiles of Japan and the Yokohama Quilt Festival

November 10-20, 2009

I am so glad that you have decided to join this exciting opportunity. Please review the following information before returning the registration materials.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

I highly recommend travel insurance in one form or another; you may purchase this with your registration from me, or from any other provider. I feel it is essential as one never knows what might happen before or during the trip and coverage is your only opportunity to regain any loss from an unexpected event.

It is particularly important that should you decline to purchase the optional insurance from me, you MUST include a signed 'Decline Insurance' form which is included in the packet or your registration will not be processed.

Please be certain that you understand the terms and conditions found online as indicated by the link from the tour website regarding deposits, penalties and refunds. The final payment deadline is September 1, 2009. Should someone register after this date, full payment is due at time of registration. Please register early as spaces cannot be guaranteed without a deposit.

Once you have been registered, you are responsible for any and all penalties that might be incurred after the final payment deadline regardless of the reason of withdrawal from the program. Insurance is highly recommended.

It is imperative that your passport expiration not be before six (6) months after your scheduled return from this tour.

When returning your forms, please be certain that you have:

1. Included a deposit check as indicated made payable to Deb Roberts' Tours
2. Signed all applicable forms where indicated.
3. Included the decline insurance form if appropriate.

It is my privilege to bring you this tour – the brain child of one of my Japanese clients. It is always my goal to keep my land tour groups small, not only so we have room to spread out on the coach, but so that we can form fast friendships and share many memories together for years to come. As such, this tour is limited to 25, please register early to avoid disappointment.

Spaces are very limited – please register early to avoid disappointment

Forms may be faxed, but check must be mailed with a copy of forms to:
